

Geography Unit 2: How does the UK compare to Mexico?

Location

Official Name: United Mexican States

Continent: North America

Hemisphere: North

Capital City: Mexico City

Surrounding Oceans: Pacific Ocean, Gulf of Mexico, Gulf of California

Bordering Countries: United States of America, Belize, Guatemala

Physical Features

Canyons

Mountains

Deserts

Rainforest

Rivers

Beaches

Coastal Wetlands

Human Features

Population: 125,959,205

Main Language: Spanish

Currency: Peso

Main Religions: 3/4 Roman Catholic

Exports: Cars, silver, petrol, oil, corn, coffee, fruit

Tourism: 66 million visitors per year

Cuisine: Tacos, Chilli Con Carne, Enchiladas, Guacamole, Burrito, Quesadillas, Tamales

Festivals: Day of the Dead, Independence Day and Las Posadas

weather	the day to day conditions of a location. climate	the weather patterns over a long period of time. climate zone	areas within a locations that have different climates. equator	an invisible line separating the earth into two halves - the Northern and Southern Hemisphere. exports	sending and selling goods to other countries. landscape	what can be seen within an environment. population	how many people live in a particular place.
culture	traditions and beliefs that people practice in a certain place, often passed down over many years.